AUGUST - NOVEMBER 2025

Fall 2025 Collection

Welcome to our Fall 2025 Collection Guide - your complete preview of the plants we're growing for the upcoming season. This guide offers a detailed look at our planned availability from August through November, organized by category: annuals, baskets, color, and grasses. Whether you're planning for retail displays, seasonal color programs, or custom installations, this resource is designed to help you order with confidence and clarity.

For each category, you'll find comprehensive lists of planned varieties, along with their projected ready dates and available sizes. This season's lineup reflects a balance of customer favorites and fresh introductions, selected to perform reliably in fall conditions and complement the changing tones of the landscape.

Use this guide to anticipate inventory, align with your seasonal plans, and stay ahead of demand.

Let's get ready for a vibrant, colorful fall!
